

LAND AT HAMPTON-IN-ARDEN PUBLIC CONSULTATION RESPONSE FORM

The Solihull Local Plan identifies the need to provide more homes, including an allocation for the village of Hampton-in-Arden. The site, to the west of the village is formally identified as a site to accommodate additional residential properties.

Whilst public consultation on the site and its development was undertaken in 2016 no formal planning application was made. This is a revised proposal.

The aim of the public consultation exercise is to help evolve the potential form of the current outline proposals, notwithstanding the principle of the development, which is agreed.

Responses would be gratefully received by 16th August 2019. However, any responses received following that date, up to the time of the application's submission, will be carefully considered as part of the application preparation process.

- 1) Given the identification of the site for residential development, do you consider the scale and nature of development to be appropriate? The Council's allocation notes 110 units, with the draft proposals noted approximately 100 units.
